This year marks the 20th anniversary of Aldeburgh Contemporary Arts. Our summer exhibition brings together three artists who have enjoyed considerable success with us over many years. They perfectly reflect our ongoing desire to present affordable fine art that stands the test of time, in a welcoming environment. Please join us on Saturday 18th June for a celebratory glass of wine and an early opportunity to view the latest works of Paul Evans, Janet Nelson and Clare Halifax.

Andrew Young, Gallery Owner

Exhibition Dates: 18th -30th June 2022.

Private View: 4pm-8pm, Saturday 18th June.

'Summer Field' Paul Evans
Acrylic on Canvas 92 x 92 cms £4500

Our 20th Anniversary also marks 50 years since Paul embarked on his career as a professional artist. His beautiful paintings have delighted our customers ever since the Gallery opened and continue to attract new art buyers who appreciate the timeless quality of his works. Suffolk has been Paul's base for some 31 years and has proved an infinite source of inspiration with its rich and varied landscapes, unique light and big skies. His work captures in remarkable detail the natural world and its response to the changing seasons.

'On the Edge of Dollops Wood' Paul Evans
Ink & Acrylic 38 x 38 cms £1275

'Aldeburgh Sunrise' Paul Evans

Acrylic on Canvas 40 x 80 cms £1495

'Crashing through the Finish Line' Janet Nelson

Acrylic on Canvas 100 x 100 cms £2395

Although based on the East Coast of Scotland, Janet has a deep connection with Aldeburgh where her vibrant and colourful seascapes were first shown in 2009 and quickly won her a loyal following. A keen and competitive sailor, she conveys the excitement and drama of ocean racing in a semi abstract, contemporary style that is both intriguing and uplifting

'Tower Bridge' Clare Halifax

'Millennium to Tate Modern' Clare Halifax

11 Colour Screenprint 15 x 35 cms £275

'Greenhouse – House of Waterlily' Clare Halifax

Screenprint 60 x 60 cms £395

Clare's background in commercial printed textile design is evident in her wonderfully detailed and patterned limited edition screen prints. London based, she takes much of her inspiration from the built environment and her large cityscapes have proved consistently popular since first showing in Aldeburgh in 2011. Our exhibition reveals the broader range of her work with a collection of coastal and floral themed prints, alongside some new London pieces.

All prints are available unframed. Please contact us for unframed prices.
